Attendance Limited to Three Representatives From Each of the 83 Firms and Chadwick Cars in seiden Ranks.

Aifred Reeves, general manager of the Association of Licensed Automobile Manu-facturers, predicted yesterday that the dinner of the organization at the Hotel Astor on April 7 would bring together the greatest gathering of motor car manu-facturers ever assembled in this country He said that at former affairs there had never been more than forty automobile manu facturing firms represented, and there is every indication that every one of the eighty-three concerns producing gasolene automobiles under Seiden patent licenses will send one or more officers to the dinner in this cit? next month.

The response from members of the association has been so prompt and the number of acceptances so great that the committee in charge H B Joy, hairman: H A Lozier, Athert L Pope, Benjamin Briscoe and R. MIDDIES LEAD AT FENCING One More Bout Than the Army in Intercollegiate Finals.

Catalogue on request

The final bouts for the intercollegiate fencing championship were begun in the Belvedere garden of the Hotel Astor last night. Four teams—West Point, Annapolis. Cornell and Pennsylvania tried each other's skill with the foils. The teams were composed of three fencers each, and as the round robin pian was used the tourney amounted to fifty-four bouts in all

Thirty of these were run off at last hight's session, that is each team fenced fifteen bouts. Then it was found that Annapolis was slightly in the lead, having won ten and lost five, while West Point won nine and lost six. Pennsylvania was third with nine wins bouts to its credit was simply outclassed The remaining bouts will be disposed to-day, the arrangement being that twelve in the evening.

In the preliminary bouts, which were held not long ago, Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Columbia were eliminated. following were the teams

Annapolis R. T. Merrill 21, R P. Hall and N. Scott Cornell - D Espindola, P. W. Allison and D. G. West Point O. N. Sobiberg, R. B. Cocroft and E. Dargue.
